

East 6th Street District

"Sixth Street" — the name says it all! This National Register Historic District has an international reputation as a great entertainment area. Here you'll find clubs, restaurants, unique shops, and the Austin Visitor Center where you can start your exploration of downtown.